20 DEMONSTRATORS ARRESTED IN RUSSIA

Russian police have arrested at least 20 demonstrators after moving them from a Moscow park where they have been staging safe sitting for a week. It is the latest action against the protesters. Opposition leaders condemn the arrest saying the laws have been broken. But the Interior Ministry said, the demonstrators have damaged a police bus. (BBC : 0600 hrs. 17/5/12 Faruk/Nargis)

GREECE'S LEFT-WING PARTY ACCUSES GERMAN CHANCELLOR

The leader of the left-wing party thought likely to do best in next month's elections in Greece has accused the German chancellor Angela Merkel. Aleoxi Sypas, the head of the leftwing wants to end government's spending cuts imposed in return for massive financial help from Greece's European partners. He told BBC that a austerity could mean the end of the single European currency. BBC : 0600 hrs. 17/5/12 Faruk/Nargis)

MLADIC'S TRIAL BEGINS

The trial has opened in the Hague of the Former Bosnian Serb Army Commander Ratko Mladic, who is accused of Europe's worst war crimes since the Second World War. He is charged with eleven counts of war crimes including genocide and the massacre of more than seven thousand Muslim men and boys at Srebrenica during the Balkans War in 1990s. (BBC : 2200+2300 hrs. 16/5/12 Faruk/Nargis)

GREEK POLITICAL LEADERS ANNOUNCE DATE FOR FRESH GE

Greek political leaders have announced the date for a fresh general election on June 17th. It follows a inconclusive election ten days ago. In the meantime, a caretaker government is to be led by a senior judge Panagiotis Pikrammenos. Main Greek political parties had failed to form a coalition government amid deadlock over the austerity measures. (BBC : 2200+2300 hrs. 16/5/12 Faruk/Nargis)

BANGLADESH SETS UP COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE GRAMEEN BANK

Bangladesh has set up a four member commission to investigate the pioneering Micro-lending Grameen Bank and several businesses linked to it. Officials said, the panel would look at the purpose and operations of the bank, founded by the nobel peace prize winner Mohammad Yunus. Last month on a visit to Dhaka, the American Secretary of State Hillary Clinton urged Bangladesh not to do anything to undermine the independence of the Grameen Bank.

IRAN CALLS PEOPLE TO HOLD RALLIES AGAINST AMERICAN PLAN

Iran has called on its people to hold rallies on Friday against what it says an American planned to annex Bahrain to Saudi Arabia. On Monday the six Arab members of the Gulf Co-operation Council met to discuss a possible union with Saudi-Bahrain integration. Bahrain has suffered unrest for more than year led largely by its Shia majority. (BBC : 2200+2300 hrs. 16/5/12 Faruk/Nargis)

SHARE PRICES IN EUROPE FALL

European share prices fell sharply in early trading amid new fears that Greece may be forced out of the Eurozone. The main share index in London fell by more than one percent while those in Italy and Spain fell nearly two percent. Inconclusive elections in Greece have led to deadlock over whether the country should continue with the austerity measures required by an international bail out agreement.
