MUCH OF EUROPE SUFFER FROM FREEZING TEMPERATURE

Much of Europe continues to suffer from freezing temperature and heavy snowfall. A BBC correspondent report from Berlin, Ukraine has been hardest hit with temperatures falling to minus 33 degree Celsius. The government there said that more than one hundred thirty people have died many of them homeless. In Bosnia, helicopters have been ferrying food to isolated villages and also moving sick people in the capital Sarajevo where the transport system has literally frozen to a stand still. In neighbouring Serbia, officials said that seventy thousand people remain cutoff. Even in Rome there has been snow the heaviest fall in more than a quarter of a century. At the Vatican the Pope greeted pilgrims in an overcoat and said he hoped spring would come soon.

FIRE AT NUCLEAR RESEARCH CENTRE IN MOSCOW

A fire has broken out at a nuclear research centre in Moscow. Officials say, the blaze started in an area where cables were housed. However, environmentalists have express concern about the incident. (BBC : 0600 hrs. 06/02/12 Motaleb/Nargis)

FRIENDS OF DEMOCRATIC SYRIA MUST RALLY AGAINST ASSAD : US

The United States says, friends of a democratic Syria must rally against President Assad. The US Secretary of State Hillary Clinton said, the United Nations Security Council has been muted by Russia and China on Saturday when they vetoed a resolution critical of Syria. Mrs. Clinton said, it was time to find another way to solve the crisis in Syria. (BBC : 2200/2400 hrs. 05/02/12 Motaleb/Nargis)

CAMPAIGN TO LEGALLY CHALLENGE BAN ON WOMAN DRIVING IN S. ARABIA

A new campaign is being launched in Saudi Arabia to urge women to legally challenge the ban on women driving. Mana al-Sharif who has led efforts to overturn the ban has told the BBC that she will appear on a widely watched Saudi TV station later today to make the announcement. A BBC correspondent reports recently Mana took the unprecedented step of filing a law suit after her request for a driving license was rejected that is currently being studied by the Interior Ministry. Now she is going to a popular TV channel to urge other women to join her and give them clear instruction on how to do so. (BBC : 2200/2400 hrs. 05/02/12 Motaleb/Nargis)

KING OF MOROCCO PARDONS SEVERAL HIGH PROFILE ISLAMISTS

The King of Morocco Mohammad Husek has issued pardons to several high profile Islamists who had been serving long prison sentences. The Pardons were granted as part of the Muslim holiday celebrates the birth of the prophet Mohammad. A BBC correspondent reports the authorities rounded up hundreds of suspected Muslim extremists in the wake of suicide bombing in Casablanca in 2003. But after the Arab spring and the victory of the moderate Islamist party in parliamentary elections last year king Mohammad seems to be changing his strategy to promote a more tolerant image.
